Jet Source (CRQ) Contracts Air BP as Their Primary Fuel Contractor

Air BP to Supply Aviation Fuel to Jet Source (CRQ), a Full Service Aviation Firm

Salem, Oregon – March 2008 – Jet Source (CRQ), a full-service aviation FBO headquartered at the McClellan-Palomar Airport in Carlsbad, California, has named Air BP as their primary source for fuel-related services.

Founded in 1997, Jet Source (CRQ) has recently undergone expansion in 2005 and is now offering 120,000 square feet of hangar space, 35,000 square feet of office space, a FBO with an executive terminal, a private conference room, a passenger lounge and a state-of-the-art pilot's media room. These amenities are complimented by an experienced maintenance staff, avionics, ramp service, fuel sales, aircraft charter, aircraft management and aircraft sales/acquisition. In 2009, Jet Source will open a new, second facility in Henderson, Nevada, that will consist of two 35,000 square foot hangars and an executive terminal.

“We are thrilled to be a part of the Air BP network,” said Debi Carlston, Director of Sales and Marketing for Jet Source. “Jet Source values its partners and vendors tremendously and we look forward to having Air BP on board to support our company philosophy of offering superior products and services for our customers.”

Under the new contract, Air BP will assist Jet Source (CRQ) in a full-range of services such as fuel distribution, marketing capabilities and safety training programs. Air BP's primary goal is to support CRQ's mission to anticipate and exceed the expectations of all customers, by providing personalized aviation services that reflect a commitment to safety, efficiency and the highest level of customer service and excellence.

“We are very pleased to be selected to provide Jet Source's aviation fuel needs,” said Steve McCullough, Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Air BP. “We believe that the union of Jet Source's full-service operation, in tandem with Air BP's aviation knowledge base and fuel offering, provides a powerful combination in the marketplace.”
