Titletown Jet Centre (KGRB) Meets U.S. Customs and Border Protection Regulations

Salem, Oregon – June, 2009 – Titletown Jet Centre appeals to international flight operators by providing 24 hour on-field customs clearance. Conveniently located in the great Circle Route in Green Bay, Wisconsin, the FBO now houses an international trash sterilizer that meets the approval of U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP).

Recognizing the opportunity to service international flights coming into Austin Straubel International Airport (KGRB), Titletown Jet Center sought out to become a full service international port of entry. By providing 24/7/365 international clearance, this one-stop FBO is no longer required to divert international flights.

"We are excited to offer U.S. Customs service's along with the regulated trash disposal to International customers looking for that one-stop full service FBO. We hope when coming into the U.S. to clear customs or returning to the U.S., operators consider Titletown Jet Center for the best in service", states Al Timmerman GM Titletown Jet Centre.

Titletown Jet Centre is located on the east side of the Austin Straubel International Airport terminal (KGRB) with NATA trained line service available 24/7/365. Just 15 minutes southwest of downtown Green Bay, Wisconsin, Titletown Jet Centre offers 150,000 square feet of ramp space to accommodate the largest of corporate aircraft. The preferred form of payment, the Air BP Sterling card, as well as a variety of contract fuel programs and all other major credit cards are honored at KGRB.
